ECU Board Chairman Receives Prestigious Recognition

Kingsport City Schools held an appreciation reception during their March work session to honor Mr. Fielding Rolston on his retirement from the Tennessee State Board of Education. Mr. Rolston served on the Tennessee State Board of Education for the last twenty-two years and as Board Chairman for twelve of those years.

During the reception, Mr. Rolston received the key to the city from the mayor, along with the highest recognition that the school board bestows: The Kingsport City Schools

Champion of Education Award. Mr. Rolston is only the third recipient of this award as presented by the superintendent of Kingsport City Schools.

Mr. Rolston has been a selfless and passionate leader in the community for many years, and ECU Board Chairman since 1998. Please join us in congratulating Chairman Rolston on this esteemed award.

ECU Annual Meeting

It's amazing what we can accomplish when we're in it together! Eastman Credit Union held its Annual Meeting on March 20, 2018, at the Toy F. Reid Employee Center in Kingsport, TN. Our theme for the meeting was "Together We Grow", which focused on the outstanding growth and achievements ECU and our loyal members have accomplished together.
